Higher Road to Gairloch

The first system of musical notation consists of a single staff with a treble clef and a 2/4 time signature. It contains 16 measures of music, with measure numbers 1 through 16 written above the staff. The melody is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing beamed sixteenth notes.

The second system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with two staves, both with treble clefs and a 2/4 time signature. It contains 8 measures of music, with measure numbers 1 through 8 written above the first staff. The music is written in a two-part setting, with the upper staff featuring a more active melody and the lower staff providing a harmonic accompaniment.

The third system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with two staves, both with treble clefs and a 2/4 time signature. It contains 4 measures of music, with measure numbers 1 through 4 written above the first staff. The music continues the two-part setting from the previous system.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with two staves, both with treble clefs and a 2/4 time signature. It contains 9 measures of music, with measure numbers 5 through 9 written above the first staff. The system concludes with a double bar line. The time signature changes to 3/4 for the final measure.
